

Tony Scott

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 13 June 2012 09:42 - Last Updated Wednesday, 26 February 2014 13:47

Tony Scott 6pm-8pm

Tony Scott has worked for some of America's most successful radio stations and networks in a career that spans more than 35 years. He has worked in markets from Washington, D.C. and Philadelphia to Denver and L.A. and has held down afternoons here on the Classic Rock format for many years. Tony also pulls weekend and fill-in duty at legendary 95-5 KLOS in Los Angeles, hosts a daily feature for AFN heard in more than 100 countries, and he's the back-up host for Bob Coburn on the long-running live interview radio program "Rockline." Tony has also been active in radio imaging and narration and chances are you've heard him on The History Channel, Discovery, HGTV, TLC and many other networks or even caught him on camera from time to time. Tony still points to radio as his true passion and why not? He's had extensive interview time with some absolute greats of Rock & Roll.

John Entwistle, Ian Anderson, David Crosby and Graham Nash, Keith Emerson and Greg Lake, Joey Kramer and Tom Hamilton, Ann and Nancy Wilson, Gregg Allman and Butch Trucks, Robbie Krieger and John Densmore, Stevie Nicks, Thorogood, are just a few of many Classic Rock legends who have spent time on the Tony Scott Show.

Fans keep up with Tony on Facebook at "Tony Scott Radio."